Superintendent's Message

The services of real men and women are needed in the world today, both at home and around the world. The proper preparation made by boys and girls in the school room, backed by right thinking and right living will be the greatest hope for the future.

It is the thought of the community, the Board of Education, and the faculty that the proper training in school will enable you to render a greater service to mankind.

It is our hope that you continue to study and in the end succeed beyond the expectations of those who know you best.

Sincerely,

Principal's Message

To the student body of Como High School and patrons as well, I would like to say each of you are a vital part in the accomplishments of our school. Heros win fame and glory by acts of bravery, but for us to win nobility we must work in unison as a unit to reach a common goal.

Not as a word of advice, but as an urgent request I sincerely solicit your continued cooperation in our school work, so that we might have a better community in which to live.
